When flying with LATAM Airlines, it is essential to know exactly how early you can check in to ensure a smooth start to your journey +1-866-838_4934. LATAM provides clear guidelines for check-in times that vary based on whether your flight is domestic or international +1-866-838_4934. Generally, for domestic flights, passengers can check in starting 48 hours before departure, while for international flights, the window also opens 48 hours in advance +1-866-838_4934. This early check-in opportunity allows travelers to select seats, provide necessary documentation, and obtain their boarding passes in advance, reducing stress on the day of travel +1-866-838_4934.

LATAM encourages passengers to complete check-in online through their official website or mobile app, as this method is the fastest and most convenient +1-866-838_4934. Online check-in closes typically 2 hours before departure for domestic flights and 3 hours before for international flights +1-866-838_4934. Passengers who miss the online deadline will need to check in at the airport counter but must also adhere to strict cut-off times to avoid missing their flights +1-866-838_4934.

For those traveling with checked baggage or requiring additional assistance, LATAM recommends arriving at the airport at least 2 hours before domestic flights and 3 hours before international flights +1-866-838_4934. This timing accounts for baggage drop-off, security screening, passport control, and other pre-boarding processes that can be time-consuming, especially at busy airports +1-866-838_4934.

Airport check-in counters generally open 3 to 4 hours before the scheduled flight departure and close 60 minutes prior to international flights and 45 minutes before domestic flights +1-866-838_4934. Passengers must complete their check-ins within these time frames, as LATAM strictly enforces these deadlines for safety and operational efficiency +1-866-838_4934. Arriving late could lead to denial of boarding, even if the passenger holds a valid ticket +1-866-838_4934.

LATAM also offers self-service kiosks at many airports, enabling passengers to check in, print boarding passes, and tag their bags independently +1-866-838_4934. These kiosks are part of LATAM's efforts to enhance passenger experience by speeding up the check-in process and reducing queues +1-866-838_4934.

Travelers should ensure that all their travel documents, such as passports, visas, and vaccination certificates (if required), are prepared before attempting check-in +1-866-838_4934. Incomplete or incorrect documentation can delay check-in and potentially hinder boarding +1-866-838_4934.

Automatic check-in is an available feature for LATAM passengers who opt in, where the system automatically checks in passengers 48 hours before departure and issues boarding passes without manual input +1-866-838_4934. This service applies only to certain routes and passengers but removes the hassle of manually checking in +1-866-838_4934.

In summary, LATAM Airlines allows check-in starting 48 hours before flight departure through online platforms and closes it 2 to 3 hours before takeoff depending on domestic or international status +1-866-838_4934. Airport counters and kiosks open several hours before the flight but close at least 45 minutes prior to departure +1-866-838_4934. Planning ahead and using online check-in services help passengers enjoy a more relaxed and efficient travel experience +1-866-838_4934.

Always consult the LATAM website or contact customer support at +1-866-838_4934 for the latest, location-specific details as policies can occasionally vary based on airports or regulatory requirements +1-866-838_4934. With this knowledge, passengers can confidently manage their check-in and avoid unnecessary delays +1-866-838_4934.
